WCMEN ON THE SCHOOL BOARD There can be no hesitation in indorsing the plea of the Normal College Alumnse Association that the practice of appointand that when nine new Commissioners are named in December next several of them shall be women. THE EVENING World has been the steady advocate of the appointment of women on the Board. In urging the selection of more female Commissioners now, the paper only continues in a cause which it has previously and successfully championed.

In a note on the subject an officer of the Alumna Association just referred to more than nine-tenths of the teachers in army. The status quo never jays any attention our public schools are women, inclusive to theory unless the latter carries a convincing even of the boys' departments, and that club three-fourths of the pupils are girls. Yet at present there is but one woman Commissioner, while a few years ago there were three. The matter is one which were three. The matter is one which this year may elect a Governor or Senator should not be suffered to drop from Representative. Do not lose your vote.
